

Explore Pretty Beach House

Pretty Beach House is a private guesthouse situated 100 kilometres north of Sydney on the Bouddi Peninsula. The property is set high on the escarpment above Pretty Beach and nestled into the Bouddi National Park.

Guests are welcomed as if in a private home, where all meals, snacks and drinks, including wines and champagnes, are included as part of the hospitality.

With only three, one-bedroom pavilions surrounding the Main House on the seven and a half-acre property, guests are offered privacy with around-the-clock service.

The pavilions Treetops, Bayview and Hideaway have views through a mass of ancient angophoras and native eucalypts down onto the sparkling Brisbane Waters.

The pavilions offer king bedrooms with separate dressing rooms, open-plan sitting areas oriented to take advantage of the views, fully stocked bars and combustion log fireplaces.

The dining and lounging areas and bathrooms lead onto private decks with day beds and heated plunge pools.

The Main House, situated in the heart of the property, has an atrium style dining and lounging area, intimate cocktail bar, wine cellar, open fireplace plus infinity pool and deck. Interiors complement the bushland surround, featuring local sandstone and recycled timbers.

The décor is simple and strong, with tub chairs in vintage leather, 1930's travel trunks, hand crafted tables and fine Belgium linen.

Local artists have taken advantage of the fallen angophora branches and created sculptures that feature throughout.

The House features relaxed dining facilities, where the food of celebrated Italian chef Stefano Manfredi is available all day, 'casalinga style'.

Guests may dine in the atrium dining room, privately within their own pavilion, in the wine cellar or al fresco on the landscaped property.

An extensive range of premium wines and spirits has been selected to complete the gastronomic experience.

For those looking even further, the wine cellar is stocked with rare old and new world wines.

The serene bushland setting offers rest and relaxation, however it can also become the centre of a full expedition experience.

Excursions can be as simple as a professionally guided bushwalk or as challenging as a fishing excursion aboard the 38 foot Pretty Beach CABO sports cruiser.

Cruise to one of the many secluded bays or beaches with a Pretty Beach House picnic hamper.

Lobster Beach, Box Head and the surf break at Tallow Beach are all within easy walking distance, while Killcare surf beach, Maitland Bay and the seaside villages of Killcare, Wagstaffe and Hardys Bay are close by.

Pavilion rates for Pretty Beach House include all meals, a selection of premium wines, champagne and spirits and daily-guided bushwalks.

Cellar selection wines and bespoke expedition packages are available on request.
