

Saffire

FREYCINET

Nature has conspired to deliver its signature coastal sanctuary, Saffire, the jewel of Tasmania.

Saffire, at the edge of Freycinet Peninsula on Tasmania's east coast, is distinct in its design, exclusive in its features and is set apart by its approach to tailored experiences and its team of staff devoted to creating an individualised experience for each guest.

Palate RESTAURANT

Saffire's restaurant, Palate, prides itself on showcasing the best Tasmania has to offer, and provides tailor-made experiences to suit all guests.

From early morning to late evening, food innovation in the kitchen does not compromise the true flavours of home-grown produce. Palate specialises in tailoring dining to all guests' requirements.

Genuine and relaxed, yet cultured and discerning service awaits you. Our knowledgeable and skilled team is warm and friendly and presents au guéridon cooking and silver service with panache.

THE Lounge

Taking its inspiration from the home environment, our lounge is the ultimate in "classic cool" – a sumptuous place to collect a book from the library or meet for a drink, and then sink into our eclectic mix of chic furniture from original 1950s designers and manufacturers.

A nightcap over a board game by the five-metre fireplace would be the perfect way to wind down. On balmy nights you may wish to retire to the courtyard to watch a breathtaking Freycinet sunset.

THE Boardroom

Set around a beautifully crafted board table, designer made from Tasmanian timbers, The Boardroom hosts 20 delegates; alternatively, the room can be arranged in theatre style for 40. It features state-of-the-art audio visual technology and communications, including 160cm LCD screen, video conferencing, PolyCom, and personal Wi-Fi connectivity for up to 20 delegates. This area can even be converted into a cinema.

The Boardroom is available for hire exclusively to Saffire guests. Included in the rate is tea and coffee, morning and afternoon tea.

Spa SAFFIRE

Nestled within the luxurious folds of Saffire's exquisite architecture rests Spa Saffire, a haven of relaxation, restoration and transformation.

Every guest is unique, as is every guest's perception of his or her perfect spa experience. For some, it is pure relaxation with a massage that meets their precise requirements in the moment. For others, it is a facial that truly restores freshness and firms the skin, releasing the last vestiges of travel and tiredness.
